Faculty Workshop Completion Report

Synthetic partial evidence example | Academic QA | 18 October 2026

01 | Report metadata

Activity: Digital Pedagogy Faculty Workshop. Department: Computer Applications. Coordinator: Faculty QA Example. Dates: 12-13 October 2026. Venue: Seminar Hall. Submission date: 18 October 2026.

02 | Executive summary

The workshop discussed teaching technologies and assessment methods. Staff prepared two sessions and circulated joining instructions. The event was reported as successful. Participants requested further demonstrations. This report is intended for verification against a department reference format, but several supporting records remain unavailable.

03 | Objectives

Introduce digital assessment tools; demonstrate collaborative learning activities; collect feedback about intended classroom adoption. The report does not link each objective to a recorded measured result.

04 | Planning and methodology

The coordinator sent invitations and drafted an agenda. An instructor demonstrated several learning tools, followed by a discussion. Participants were asked to submit feedback forms. However, the final questionnaire, attendance verification method and actual feedback totals were not retained in the submitted file.

05 | Activity timeline

12 October 2026: opening and introduction. 13 October 2026: digital tools demonstration and discussion. The timing of individual sessions was not recorded.

06 | Attendance and quantitative outcomes

Invited: 35. Registered: 29. Attended on day one: 26. Completed the event: 24. The report states that participation was satisfactory, but it does not calculate the completion rate or identify evidence for these counts. The difference between attendance and completion is not explained.

07 | Evidence register

Attendance sheet: mentioned but not attached. Workshop photographs: described but no dated image records supplied. Raw feedback: not attached. Payment receipts: not attached. The missing evidence should be disclosed as a review limitation rather than treated as proof of completion.

08 | Budget and utilization

Approved amount: INR 12,000. Venue: INR 2,500. Materials: INR 4,000. Refreshments: INR 3,200. Remaining funds: INR 2,300. The arithmetic is internally consistent because expenses total INR 9,700, leaving INR 2,300. No original invoices were submitted.

09 | Findings, limitations and conclusion

Participants appeared interested in the tools. The report recommends collecting structured follow-up feedback. The submitted material does not establish learning gains or provide independent evidence of the outcomes. The HOD should request missing attendance proof, raw feedback, photographs and financial receipts before making a confident decision.
